QUICK THINKING BOY SCOUTS SAVE BUDDY STRICKEN ON HIKE

Calm, clear-headed thinking and a practical application of Scout training by two 13-year-old Albany Boy Scouts is credited with doubtless saving the life of Dale Brown, 13, son of Mr. Mrs. Raymond C. Brown, 1053 Peralta Ave.

The story was told last weekend by Scouts returning from Wolfboro on the Stanislaus River, 30 miles north of Camp.

July 19 Dale, with Gordon

1048 Peralta Ave. and Jack

1248 Solano Ave. went

11 mile hike to a lake near

Camp. They had started to across the lake, using a log support, when Dale was stricken with appendicitis cramps. The boys decided to return to camp.

They had gone hardly a mile when he was again doubled up with pain.

Jack hurried to a Scout camp a mile and a half from where they stopped and told Bud Gordon

Desmond Owens, Berkeley

Scout leaders, of their plight.

Gordon and Owens struck out for Wolfboro, 11 miles distant, accompanied by Jim Woods,

Joshua and two other Berkeley

Scouts. Gordon and Owens

made the run to Wolfboro in 90 minutes.

Using their Scout knives the boys

cut down two cedar saplings fashioned a stretcher with packs and placed Dale, who was in considerable pain, upon the stretcher.

The six boys began a three mile hike to a road where a jeep camp was to meet them.

For five hours the six lads made the difficult way over a narrow trail in gathering darkness. The go-was rugged but the youngsters trudged doggedly on. They trugged down hills where it was all they could do to bear the weight of their load. Then down-hill when they thought to keep the stretcher level and not stumble on the rough path.

Throughout the entire trip Dale's condition of the great pain must have felt was to occasionally one arm over his eyes.

At 9 p. m. the boys waiting in the dark saw the little calvalcade coming an unused road in the light of the full moon. Dale was placed in the jeep on a pile of mattresses, and taken to a doctor in Sonoma and where to Permanente Hospital

Richmond. As the lights of the jeep disappeared up the road the weary stretcher bearers began their long hike back to camp.

Dale's companions had brought him to safety before his appendix rupture so the operation was performed and he is now resting at Resting? Well, ask any mother keeping a healthy 13-year-old resting quietly when the days are long and warm and he is sure to be out of the hospital.

Temporary officers elected to initiate the activities of the new

State Organization are: Chairman,

Mrs. J. A. Stringfellow, 1541 Wellington Ave., Oakland; Secretary,

Mrs. H. Sorenson, 219 Downey St.,

San Francisco; and Publicity Chairman, Mrs. M. B. Giberson, 835 Key

Route Blvd., Albany.

Niece of Beatrice

Raymond Visits Here

Visiting in Albany this week was

Mrs. Pauline Ainslie, niece of Mrs.

Beatrice Raymond, local realtor.

Mrs. Ainslie was recently named

"First Lady of the Year" at her home in Oklahoma City, Okla.,

where she is principal of the Lowell

School. The award is a project of Beta Sigma Phi, international business and cultural sorority. Selection was made by a secret committee of leading business and professional people in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Ainslie was chosen for her efforts to improve educational and recreational facilities for the children of her school.

Double Gold Bond Stamps

This Friday and Saturday

The Gold Bond Stamp Plan, now

gaining popularity with Albany shoppers, has declared Friday and Saturday of this week as "double stamp days." On these two days shoppers at stores where Gold Bond stamps are given will receive two stamps with each 10 cent purchase instead of the customary one.

Neal D. Miley who introduced the Gold Bond plan to Albany announced that this is the first in a series of double stamp days which will come periodically throughout the year. The extra stamps will be given to aid consumers in more quickly filling their stamp books.

A full book may be redeemed for three dollars cash.

"The Gold Bond Stamp plan," Miley said, "has been praised as the equivalent of saving money on money spent."

Rotarians Told of

Conditions on Guam

Under the chairmanship of Ted

Williams, the Albany Rotary Club met Monday to hear Ed Morris, former executive secretary of the Albany Y.M.C.A. when it was first organized here some 15 years ago.

Morris recently returned from Guam where he served as medical advisor for a construction company.

He told of conditions on Guam and warned Rotarians of the constant need for alert attention to world affairs.

Program Chairman Jack O'Keefe

has announced that he plans to have Don R. Harris from the staff of the University of California

Trade and Industry section as guest speaker. Harris has chosen "China Today" as his subject. A graduate of the class of 1939 at

U. C. Harris served five years as a

Mrs. Glavinovich Hurt

In Fall at Home

Mrs. Dulavita Glavinovich, pioneer Albany resident, is recovering from a broken hip incurred in a fall at her home, 1115 Dartmouth

St. last Friday. She underwent an operation at Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley Monday.

She is the widow of John Glavinovich, former Albany Police

Chief and mother of George Glavinovich, Albany's City Attorney.

A daughter, Rose Glavinovich, is a member of the Oakland Tribune editorial staff.

Mary Ann McMahon, 5½-year-old local girl, crippled in both legs, smiles for her dad, Dr. Robert McMahon, of 1181 Solano Ave., Albany, on arrival at La Guardia Field, N. Y., after a flying visit to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes in France.

Evening School Summer Session Ends July 30

The summer session, conducted by the Albany Evening High School during the past seven weeks, will come to a close on Friday, July 30. This is the second year this educational service has been offered by the Board of Education. According to Mrs. Delsa Walton, president of the board, it has been very successful. Over 700 adults were registered in one or more of the 33 courses offered.

Even though the regular summer session is closing, a few classes will continue during August. These include folk dancing, social dancing, infant guidance, and pottery and mold making. Those desiring to obtain more information regarding enrollment in any of these classes should call LA. 5-1757 in the afternoon.

As an additional community service, the Albany Board of Education will open the Codornices Pre-School Play Center on Wednesday, August 4, at the Codornices School building for a five-week period preceding the opening of the fall term. Mothers who reside in Codornices Village, in Kula Gulf, or in the Gill Tract may enroll their children, from 2 to 4½ years of age, conditional upon their participating in a planned program of study and supervision of the children. Those interested in this program should see Mrs. Kathryn Powell, the teacher, at Codornices School on or after Wednesday, Aug. 4th.

The opening of the fall term of the Albany Evening High School, both day and evening classes, has been announced as the week of September 13.

15 Pre-School Tots To Graduate Today

Graduation exercises will be held at Albany Pre-School, 850 Masonic Avenue on the afternoon of July 30 at 4 p. m. The occasion will mark the end of pre-school days for 15 boys and girls who have spent many happy hours sharing in the play and educational activity program of the school.

The names of the graduating group includes: Billie Brown, Linda Sue Darlington, Geneva Gilcrest, Douglas Haavik, Gary Keck, Ann Klein, Joanne Larson, Margaret McGimpsey, Allan Miller, Gerald Olson, Kathleen Popper, Beth Roberts, Bill Schaser, Dion Seordelis, and Nancy Shaw.

Mrs. Nell Curran, Director of the Pre-School and Mrs. Sunnie Senne, Social Chairman have been in charge of the arrangements. "Graduation" will be the theme of the table and other decorations and the refreshments for the children will be cookies and ice cream.

C. of C. Members, Guests Enjoy Annual Dinner

Members and guests of the Albany Chamber of Commerce met at the Palm Gardens Wednesday night to resume their annual dinner, a custom discontinued during the war, and a good time was had by all.

Honored guests of the evening were Don Follett, general manager of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and Howard "Hod" Freeman, public relations director for Golden Gate Fields.

Introduced by President William Bowman, Follett commended the Chamber for the part they have played in gaining for the Bay Area a reputation of accomplishment through all cities of the area working in harmonious cooperation. He praised the local group as "a good chamber of commerce" and urged continued support by all members for the future prosperity of Albany and all of Alameda County.

Freeman extended the thanks of his entire organization for the hearty welcome Albany has given Golden Gate Fields and expressed the hope that personnel of the track will take an active part in civic life of this city.

Harry Barrows, president of the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce, was present to represent his group. He promised the cooperation of the Jaycees to work with their elders for the betterment of the city.

Honored for their work as directors of the group were Beatrice Raymond, Ted Williams, Al Hacklin, Jack O'Keefe, Fred Granholt, George Hein and Walter Kees. A vote of thanks went to Mrs. Ted Williams for her untiring work as secretary of the Chamber. Also introduced was Grace McKnight from the Berkeley Gazette.

Added entertainment was furnished in music by Richard Bowman with his trombone and Samuel Lico, accordionist.

Legionaires Told of Japanese Shrines

Members of Albany Post 292, American Legion, learned the symbolism of the "Seven Happy Gods" from a talk given by Mrs. Frances Fitch Harris about her experiences as a WAC in Japan.

After serving as acting first sergeant at Camp Wolters, Tex., and as corporal in the U. S. Army and Navy General Hospital at Hot Springs, Arkansas, during the war, the speaker re-enlisted and was sent overseas in 1946.

She arrived in Tokyo on Christmas day and the following February was married to Staff Sergeant John L. Harris of the U. S. Army.

While in the Orient she visited Kamakura, the City of Shrines, and location of the second largest goddess in the world, a 30 foot bronze effigy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris returned to the U. S. a few months ago. They have both been discharged and are now making their home in Oakland.

Posing the $64 question in Kensington these days is this 'possum. How did he get into the tightly enclosed floor furnace of Vernon D. Godfrey, 290 Coventry Rd.? Hearing "burglar" noises the other night, Godfrey investigated and found the little fellow trying to scratch his way out. To extricate him, Fire Department Engineer Robert Bailey, left, and Police Officer Henry Peth had to dismantle the furnace. The intruder's entry is still unexplained.

RESIDENTS ASK MORE STREET LIGHTS FOR KEY ROUTE BOULEVARD

A representation of residents on Key Route Boulevard was present at City Council meeting Monday night to ask for additional lighting on the west side of their street.

Speaking for the citizens, W. N. McClain, 656 Key Route Blvd., said that although he lived on the west side of the street he always approached his home at night walking on the east side where the lighting was sufficient to afford safety. He asked that each council member state his views on the matter.

MORGAN'S MEANDERINGS

By M. S. T.

Like many other skilled craftsmen, firemen have their own jargon for their equipment. Take for instance hose. It isn't hose at all—it's "spaggetti." Call for a "hook" and you get a pike pole. When firemen speak of going on the "wagon" they mean simply that they are riding their big red fire trucks. "Big Benny" is the alarm bell and when he rings they all "hit the brass."

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hill, they own Hill's Hardware on Solano Ave., returned this week from a motor jaunt to Pinecrest and Yosemite. With them was their daughter, Hazel, and a house guest, Mrs. Laura Corper of Arlington, Mass.

Among the not so happy week-enders Sunday was Herb Foley of Foley and Bonny, the Solano Ave. haberdashers. Herb slashed three tendons on his left foot when he stepped on a piece of glass while swimming at Jackson. He was treated at Herrick Hospital.

Hardly recognizable Friday was Fire Chief Fred Pimental when a weed burning crew went to work on the lot across from the Times. Dressed in an old straw hat, a faded blue shirt, trousers that had definitely seen better days and dark glasses, the Chief was right out there setting fires with the rest of the crew.

When Fire Captain Gerald Browne took Hoseman Wallis Collins out Saturday to teach him some of "Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Christian Science churches on Sunday, August 1, with the Golden Text from John: "We have known and loved the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (4:16).

Included in the sermon are the following citations:

Psalm: "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into water springs. And there he maketh the hungry dwell, that they may prepare a way for habitation" (107:31, 35, 36).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need" (p. 494).

PANCAKES IN A DESSERT ROLE . . .

Hawaiian Pancake Roll-Ups for dessert. And what a dessert! Golden brown, oh, so tender, thin pancakes rolled up around a yummy filling of sweetened crushed pineapple. Serve 'em piping hot with delicious, tart pineapple sauce. Remember, too, that with a hearty, satisfying dessert you can go light on the rest of the meal.

Clip the tested recipe below now and see how often this novel dessert fills the bill for supper on cold winter evenings.

HAWAIIAN PANCAKE ROLL-UPS

2 cups sifted flour
1/4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt

1/4 cup Spry
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
4 eggs, well beaten
2 cups milk

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt into mixing bowl. . . . Cut in Spry fine. . . . Add grated lemon rind. . . . COMBINE beaten eggs and milk; add to dry ingredients, mixing until smooth. . . . For each pancake, pour 1/2 cup batter onto hot greased griddle. . . . Turn when bubbles appear on surface and edges of pancakes are dry, and brown on other side. . . . SPREAD sweetened crushed pineapple on top of each pancake and roll up quickly. Serve hot with Pineapple Sauce. . . . MAKES 16 pancakes.

PINEAPPLE SAUCE. Mix 1 cup brown sugar and 1 tablespoon cornstarch in saucepan. . . . Add 1 cup unsweetened canned pineapple juice and 1 tablespoon butter and boil 3 minutes. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

New Electra Powerhouse now pouring power into P. G. and E. lines

Latest in the parade of new P. G. and E. power producers is the Electra plant on the Mokelumne River eight miles from Jackson. New Electra is one of four powerhouses, completed or underway, spaced along the river . . . powerhouses to take the muscle from the Mokelumne and put it to work for Northern and Central California homes, farms and factories. One Electra unit began pouring power on the line this week and, when at full capacity, Electra will produce 133,000 horsepower. The four Mokelumne plants will turn out a total of 250,000 horsepower.

A pipeful of power . . . the penstock shown here feeds Mokelumne water from the reservoir to the powerhouse under high pressure. There it's jetted from giant nozzles at terrific speed against the water wheels that whirl power-making turbines.

Power enough to serve the cities of Berkeley, Richmond and Emeryville will pour out of New Electra. The entire Mokelumne project will produce nearly twice that much. And this is just part of our program of more power . . . to serve you better.

for the record

New Electra stands near the site of the first plant to serve San Francisco with hydro-power.
P. G. and E. is investing in California at the rate of more than $10,000,000 a month.
The first half-million horsepower is being added in the next seven months.

Work never stops on our power-building program

"A Reason Why We Satisfy"
"HE WHO hesitates is lost!"— How true. Many regretful people would now be proud home owners had they the courage and confidence to act. Life is a gamble; nothing ventured, nothing gained.
Security is bravery's reward. In spite of seeming conditions, some way, somehow, courageous people attain their goal of success and security. Here's a start for you—Let's go.

SPACIOUS 5 room, 2 bedroom stucco, fireplace, hardwood floors, dual wall furnace, dining and breakfast rooms. Centrally located for schools, transportation and shopping. This older Albany home is immaculate and under $10,000.

ANOTHER older Spanish style, large, 3 bedroom, 6 room stucco home. Hardwood floors, fireplace, floor furnace, barbecue pit, front porch. Very close to all transportation, schools and shopping and nicely landscaped. A real bargain.

Lexicon Store to Open Branch on Gilman Avenue

Tom Gabriel, owner of the Lexicon Store at 536 San Pablo Ave., Albany, this week announced the grand opening on Saturday, July 31, of his Lexicon Store No. 2 at 1270 Gilman St., Berkeley.

In celebration of the opening event Lexicon, in cooperation with the Stewart Warner Radio Division is making an amazing offer. A trade-in value of $40 will be given for any radio, regardless of condition, age or size, turned into the store.

These radios will be turned over to the Navy hospital at Oak Knoll and the Army hospital in Oakland. Hospitalized veterans will repair the sets as part of their rehabilitation training in which they learn electronics.

Gabriel said that his Berkeley store will carry the same fine lines of merchandise as customers in Albany have come to know. He features a complete line of radios, washers and other home appliances.

Castings Still Open For Centennial Play

Alameda County residents, including those interested in little theater activities, may still qualify as participants in "Glory in the Land", Alameda County's centennial pageant to be presented at Woodminster Aphitheater, Oakland, in August and September, according to J. Fenton McKenna.

"There are still some openings in the cast for choral groups, folk dancing units, modern dance groups, ensemble and speaking parts," McKenna said. "The units will rehearse in their localities and bring the final production of their scenes to Woodminster for dress rehearsals."

The Alameda County Centennial Committee has established headquarters at 1401 San Pablo Avenue, Oakland, where Dr. McKenna and his staff also maintain offices. Any person with musical or dramatic talent interested in appearing in "Glory in the Land" is requested to contact the pageant director or his assistants at GLencourt 2-1950 or call at the offices in the City Hall Plaza.

"Glory in the Land" will be presented August 27, 28, 29 and September 3, 4, 5, 9, 10, 11 and 12. There will be no admission charge.
